Juniper Studio Notes

FICTIONAL NEWSLETTER | Issue 01 | November 2026

Studio open table

Bring an unfinished paper experiment to the studio open table. The fictional session is a chance to show a work in progress and ask one focused question.

Materials shelf

This issue explores plain paper, graphite and simple folded shapes. Label a sample with its material and date so the next person can identify it.

Next issue

Send one original studio note to the editor through the contact route supplied by your own organization. This sample contains no real submission service.

Editor: Sample studio team. Replace event and contact details before circulation.